The first of its kind, this study details every engagement large and small in the entire campaign in a depth and manner never before presented or attempted. This is yet another must-have Gettysburg book by the award-winning Petruzzi-Stanley team. FEBRUARY 2012

GETTYSBURG'S FORGOTTEN CAVALRY ACTIONS

Farnsworth's Charge, South Cavalry Field, and the Battle of Fairfield, July, 1863
by Eric J. Wittenberg

Expanded and revised, 44 photos and illustrations, 8 maps, footnotes, biblio., index, 216 pages. Trade paper. $17.95

The 1998 winner of the Bacheelder-Coddington Award, penned by Gettysburg's leading cavalry expert.

UNHOLY SABBATH

The Battle of South Mountain, September 14, 1862
by Brian Mathew Jordan

11 maps, 22 photos, OOBs, appendices, biblio., index, 360 pages, cloth. $29.95

Overshadowed by Antietam's horrific carnage just three days later, the complex and fascinating combat at South Mountain was in fact a decisive Federal victory and important turning point in the campaign, as historian Brian Mathew Jordan convincingly argues in his fresh interpretation that combines traditional military history with a memory study that will be welcomed by all students of the war. DECEMBER 2011
