Now available in trade paperback! The study of the Civil War in the Western Theater is more popular now than ever before, and the center of that interest is the months-long Vicksburg Campaign. Author Terry Winschel, chief historian at Vicksburg National Military Park, weaves a professional lifetime of personal experience and scholarship into this remarkable study: ten fascinating chapters on the complex and decisive campaign to capture the city of Vicksburg and sever the Confederacy in two.

His chapters cover every major aspect of what many consider to have been the decisive military achievement of the war: the capture of "The Gibraltar of the Confederacy."

*Unvexed to the Sea:
An Overview of the Vicksburg Campaign*

The Only Viable Option: Grant's March Through Louisiana

*Playing Smash With the Railroads:
The Story of Grierson's Raid*

The Inland Campaign Begins: The Battle of Port Gibson

*Disaster and Disgrace:
John C. Pemberton and the Battle of Champion Hill*

*The First Honor at Vicksburg:
The 1st Battalion, 13th United States Infantry*

Spades are Trump: Siege Operations

Shut Up As If In a Trap: Citizens Under Siege

To Rescue Gibraltar: Efforts of the Trans-Mississippi Confederates to Relieve Fortress Vicksburg

Triumph and Defeat: Vicksburg Surrenders

Winschel's chapters include detailed coverage of military operations, leading personalities, important battles, and citizens under siege. Smoothly written and deeply researched, these fresh chapters offer balanced and comprehensive analysis written with the authority that only someone who has served as Vicksburg's Chief Historian since 1978 can produce. Bolstered by photographs, illustrations, and numerous outstanding original maps, this inaugural volume in the Triumph & Defeat series will stand as a lasting contribution to the study of the Civil War.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Terrence Winschel is the Chief Historian of Vicksburg National Military Park, and the recipient of the Eastern National Author of the Year award. He is the author or editor of many books and articles on the Civil War.
