

The Chancellorsville Campaign Papers, Volume 1

1st Edition, 1st Printing Errata

Page 6 – 2nd paragraph, 5th line: change “miles” to “yards”

Page 61 – Last document, 1st line of body: change “south” to “with”

Page 85 – Footnote 122: Change “Not found” to “This image is included in The Chancellorsville Campaign Papers Atlas, p. 35.”

Page 293 – Last document (Circular): change font of “These roads, after being used for the purpose named are to be most thoroughly and effectually blockaded” to strikethrough

Page 294 – Butterfield to Letterman, 3rd line: change font of “unless absolutely necessary” to strikethrough

Page 296 – 1st document, 3rd paragraph, 2nd line: change font of “which he did” to strikethrough

1st document, Final paragraph: change font to strikethrough

Page 489 – 1st line: change “could move” to “could not move”

The Chancellorsville Campaign Papers, Volume 2

1st Edition, 1st Printing Errata

Page 60 – Last paragraph, 6th line: change font of “most curious” to strikethrough

Page 65 – 3rd full paragraph, 10th line: change “on reference” to “no reference”

Page 149 – 3rd paragraph, 2nd line: change font of “right” to strikethrough

Page 252 – 2nd paragraph, last sentence: change font to strikethrough

3rd paragraph, 4th sentence: change font of “this was erroneous &” to strikethrough

Page 256 – 2nd letter, 2nd paragraph, 7th line: change font of “whether it was practicable to turn the Federal left from their position” to strikethrough

Page 257 – 1st paragraph, 7th line: change font of “easily attracted his attention” to strikethrough

1st paragraph, 8th line: change font of “did not consider it feasible on account of the topography to the right to attempt to turn the Federal left flank” to strikethrough

1st paragraph, 11th line: change font of “getting his arm around Smith’s neck he drew him down” to strikethrough

1st paragraph, 17th line: change font of “except that Gen. Chilton was hovering over a very small one he being Gen. Lee’s staff officer on duty that night” to strikethrough

Page 269 – Line 6: Change font of “command” to strikethrough

Page 285 – 3rd full paragraph, 5th line: change font of “[thicket]” to strikethrough